- Information about your criminal record;
- Information confirming that the statutory employment and safer recruitment checks have been made;
- Details of your schedule (days of work and working hours) and attendance at work;
- Information about medical or health conditions, including whether or not you have a disability for which the organisation needs to make reasonable adjustments and fulfil its duty of care (including the use of Occupational Health Services);
- Photographs (for internal safeguarding & security purposes, school newsletters, media and promotional purposes).
- CCTV images

We may also hold personal data about you from third parties, such as references supplied by former employers or service users, information provided during the completion of our pre-deployment checks, and from the Disclosure & Barring Service, in order to comply with our legal obligations and statutory guidance.

2. Why we collect and use this information

The purpose of collecting and processing this data is to help us run the school efficiently, including but not limited to:

- Fulfil our legal obligations in relation to Keeping Children Safe in Education
- Develop all aspects of the school operationally
- Inform our operational procedures
- Allow better financial modelling, administration and planning
- Provide references where requested
- Allow us to fulfil our legal and contractual obligations

- To assess the quality of our services
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing

3. The lawful basis on which we use this information

Our lawful basis for collecting and processing Supply, Consultant and Contractor information is defined under Article 6 of the GDPR (also included in the Data Protection Act 2018), and the following sub-paragraphs apply:

- (a) Data subject gives consent for one or more specific purposes.
- (c) Processing is necessary to comply with the legal obligations of the controller.
- (f) Processing is necessary for your legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party.
- b) To fulfil contractual obligations or to take steps in order to enter into a contract

Our lawful basis for collecting and processing your information is also further defined under Article 9 of the GDPR (also included in the Data Protection Act 2018), in that some of the information we process is deemed to be sensitive, or special, information and the following sub- apply:

- (a) The data subject has given explicit consent.
- (b) It is necessary to fulfill the obligations of controller or of data subject.
- (d) Processing is carried out by a foundation or not-for-profit organisation (includes religious, political or philosophical organisations and trade unions)

A full breakdown of the information we collect on staff can be found herein the record of data processing which can be requested from the School Bursar, Russell Grant, finance@hermitageprimary.org.uk.

Where we have obtained consent to use staff members personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn. Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using your personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of this data.

4. Collecting Your Information

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory our related to our mutual contractual obligation, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain your information to us or if you have a choice in this.

5. Storing your data

We create and maintain filing system related to these individuals. The information contained in these files is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your deployment with us. Once your deployment with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our retention policy.

- Professional advisers and consultants – for us to develop our service to best provide our public service
- Police forces, courts, tribunals
- Future employers – references

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

7. Why we share your information

We do not share information about you with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We only share your information with our Local Authority if there is a genuine safeguarding concern. The majority of the information shared will be to manage the mutual contractual obligations in place around the services provided.

8. Data collection requirements:

Our data collection requirements all relate to our legal and contractual obligations, for example contract clauses or the statutory 'Keeping Children Safe in Education Guidance'

9. Requesting access to your personal data and your Data Protection Rights

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold, through a Subject Access Request.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you or your child
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

Individuals also have the right for their personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

Hermitage Primary School reserves the right to verify the requester's identification by asking for Photo ID, if this proves insufficient then further ID may be required.
